COMING ATTRACTIONS

"Jack and the Beanstalk," a lobby participation show for children will be performed on three successive Saturdays—November 5, 12, and 19—with two performances daily, at 11:00 and 1:00. Bring the kids. It's fun for all. Larry Stoy is directing a cast of talented up-and-comers.

Our next major production promises fun for the whole family. If you remember and treasure the old Jeanette MacDonald-Nelson Eddy musicals, you'll love "Little Mary Sunshine." Beautiful maidens, handsome Forest rangers, savage Indians, and wonderful songs abound in this light-hearted spoof of a more romantic era. It opens December 1 under Ricky Christie's direction.

MEET THE CAST

Ruth Sohn (Lee) is one of Sumter Little Theatre's most faithful workers. Her last appearance on-stage was in Born Yesterday, but she has worked tirelessly back-stage in costuming, stage management, make-up, and a variety of other jobs.

Marcy Heath Poston (Pat and Lee) is preparing two roles for Accommodations, and also rehearsing for a production by the Shaw Stage Company, which will open November 7.

Theresa Racey (Pat in the Friday night performance) is making her debut with Sumter Little Theatre, but she has numerous credits with the St. Jude's High School Drama Club.

Marshall Perry (Tracy) has been working with a professional theatre group in Florida. His last role here was in Treasure Island in 1979.

Ken Poston (Bob) is a Hammy winner for his well-remembered role as Snug in A Midsummer Night's Dream. Roar!

Gretchen Degenhardt (Director) last directed Blithe Spirit and her last role on-stage was as the harried housewife in Don't Drink The Water.

Randy Abbot (Designer) is developing an interesting design portfolio, having provided us with the lovely sets for The Mikado and Twelve Dancing Princesses.

Richard Bohan (Stage Manger) made his debut with our group in Much Ado About Nothing. He teaches Political Science at Morris College.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We wish to thank St. Jude's Roman Catholic Parish for use of their social hall for rehearsals. We also wish to thank Morris College for their interest in Sumter Little Theatre through their journalism department. Also our sincere thanks to McDuffie's Furniture Store for loaning the furnishings used in this production and to "Arthur's On Main" for the use of their bathtub.
